

NEWS FROM THE PRINCIPAL

TERM 1
WEEK 10
2013

OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY, KELLYVILLE

Greetings!

Happy Easter!

There is a great quote (not sure of the author, perhaps Augustine) that I like; “We are Easter people and Alleluia is our song.” We are indeed Easter people. Our lives are fulfilled and transformed through the Resurrection.

Jesus’ words from the gospel on Monday also appealed to me; “Do not be afraid – go and tell the brothers.” The words “Do not be afraid” are a wonderful invitation. “Go and tell the brothers” of course is also an invitation and quite a challenge. It is easy to share this news with people you know, not so easy with strangers or “non - believers”. How do we share this news? That is another aspect of the Easter message for us this week. How does my lifestyle demonstrate my belief in the resurrection? Am I an Easter person? Is Alleluia my song?

Happy Easter, happy thinking,

John Spradbrow

OLOR Raffle Tickets

All raffle tickets have been recorded against the eldest child’s name and must be returned– sold or unsold to school by the end of next week April 12th to ensure they are marked off and returned back to the Parish in time for the dinner dance.

SPORTS SPECTACULAR

HOW GOOD IS SHE???

Congratulations to Kyla Hau on her sensational swim at the Primary Schools' Championships at Homebush on Tuesday 2nd April. Kyla swam a personal best of 42.02 seconds and finished 17th in the State of NSW. Fantastic Kyla!!!!

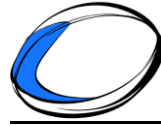

Good Luck to our Year 6 and Year 6 Girls Soccer Teams who will compete in the Parramatta Diocesan Gala Day next Tuesday on 9th April.

Have Fun!!

High Jump finals will be held this Friday 5th April during school time. Could students involved in this please wear their PE Uniform.

Rugby League Trials will be held after school this Friday 5th April on the Friary. I will be there with the students after school. Parents can collect their stars at 4.30pm.

Diocesan Cross Country

Students who came 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, or 6th in our school cross country will receive a note this week re Diocesan cross country to be held on Tuesday 7th May at Eastern Creek (Term 2, Week 2). Could you Please return their permission notes by next Monday ... it would be a great help. Thank you.

Eels Vs Sharks

This Saturday our students have been invited to be the ½ and full time "entertainment" in the Eels v's Sharks under 20's game at Parramatta Stadium. They will play backyard league sessions in the 2 timeslots of 3.45pm and 4.35pm.

Players and 1 parent receive free entry to the game. We are looking for 15-20 interested students. If you can let me know ASAP that would be great. First in, best dressed.

PS. It could be good to watch the Sharkies!!!

Could you please write a note saying your child can attend and I will give them the tickets and necessary information.

Thank you
Vicki Harvey
